

Important Information

Kinloch Lodge is a remote wilderness lodge 1.5 hours away from Queenstown.

The Heritage rooms are not ensuite, but the six rooms share 2 luxurious bathrooms. It is for adults only.

There are four toilets and four showers shared between the guests in the Wilderness rooms.

All bedding (sheets, duvets, pillows, blankets) and towels are provided. No need for sleeping bags.

Kinloch Lodge has a restaurant/café that serves breakfast, lunch and dinner (by reservation before 5pm), as well as teas, coffees and home-baked goodies.

If you plan to self-cater, it is recommended that you buy your groceries before leaving Queenstown, as supplies in Glenorchy and Kinloch are limited.

